

ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITY

CLEANING UP ONE POLICY AT A TIME

Public concern and awareness over environmental matters has seen a dramatic spike. Federal, Provincial and Territorial jurisdictions have enacted a wide variety of legislation and statutes under which liability can flow to corporations and individuals owning property.

From environmental impairment and storage tank pollution liability, to Brownfield remediation and environmental clean-up, the environmental specialists at Jones DesLauriers Insurance Management Inc. work hand-in-hand with you to maximize your environmental liability coverage. We offer customized insurance products, risk management solutions and specialized services to address your unique needs and challenges.

Are You Protected?

Whether you have commercial or residential building exposures, your policy could include protection from claims associated with:

- * Bodily Injury
- * Property Damage
- * Cleanup & Remediation Costs
- * Legal Defense Expenses
- * Damages to Third Parties' Land
- * Natural Resource Damage Claims
- * Civil Fines, Penalties & Assessments
- * Business Interruption

Our Environmental Team can provide you with the information you need to make an educated risk management decision. We will explain the coverage options available to you and outline the costs of taking risk on directly. We look at incidents you might not have anticipated, ask questions you might not have considered and look further than other insurance providers to maximize your insurance program.
