INSURANCE FOR UNIQUE TECHNIQUES & PROCESSES

At Jones DesLauriers Insurance Management Inc. we can quickly provide the proper insurance package for the food processing industry, at the most competitive price. Our team is dedicated to developing and maintaining business relationships with each of our individual clients.

Specialized Coverage

Together with one of the largest insurers in the market, we have designed a comprehensive insurance package to cover the unique exposures facing the food processing industry. This program includes:

- |                       |   |
|-----------------------|---|
| Property       | Damage to owned property caused by a comprehensive list of perils found in the broadest "all risks" policy including flood, earthquake and sewer backup.                                  |
| Loss of Income | Complete business interruption recovery plan assessment. Recommendations will be made to mitigate exposures and ensure adequate protection is in place.                                   |
| Crime          | Provides employee dishonesty protection and money coverage. Employee theft or dishonesty can severely damage a company's bottom line and create adverse publicity and disrupt operations. |
| Liability      | Comprehensive risk assessment to evaluate every aspect including your industry, facilities, equipment and employees.  |

Consider This

All food processors understand that their industry has its own unique challenges. Wondering whether you are properly insured should not be one of them.

You can trust our professional staff to take care of your insurance needs, ensuring that you have the right people and processes in place to help your business grow. Our experienced team will advise you of what your current policy covers, what it does not, and what protection is essential. We will even provide you with a detailed account of how insurance premiums are calculated in your industry.
