
Surety Association of Canada Elects Insurance & Surety Specialist, Stephen Hall, as new Chairman of Board of Directors

With expertise and proven results in transforming the Surety industry, Stephen Hall has been elected Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Surety Association of Canada (SAC). Hall is an Insurance & Surety Specialist and Partner at Jones DesLauriers Insurance Management Inc. (JDIMI), the largest independent insurance brokerage in Canada and a leading provider of Surety Bonding solutions nationwide.

Toronto, ON
(Oct 2, 2009)

The Surety Association of Canada (SAC) held their 18th Annual General Meeting and Reception last week and announced the appointment of Stephen Hall, Insurance & Surety Specialist and Partner at Jones DesLauriers Insurance Management Inc. (JDIMI), as the new Chairman of their Board of Directors.

Although Surety brokers, including JDIMI, make up a considerable portion of membership, SAC was originally formed by a group of companies who believed the surety industry needed a voice that was independent of its cousins in the insurance industry. The appointment of a broker to Chairman is an outstanding accomplishment as this position has been dominantly held by surety company personnel.

“Stephen Hall’s expertise and proven results in transforming the Surety industry have earned him this position at the Surety Association of Canada,” says Jon Csordas, Surety Bonding Manager at JDIMI. “His expertise is backed by the strong brand and solid reputation of JDIMI, the largest independent insurance brokerage in Canada and a leading provider of Surety Bonding solutions nationwide.”

In his 20+ years in the Insurance & Surety industry, as well as four years serving on the Board of Directors, Hall has provided an interactive, professional and proactive approach to the Surety industry. He was elected to continue to provide solutions that will benefit the industry and complete SAC’s evolution into the true voice of Surety in Canada.

“We are confident that Stephen Hall will fulfill his responsibilities as Chairman of the Board of Directors at SAC and uphold the association’s vision to ensure a more Surety friendly environment for the construction and business communities in Canada.”

About the Surety Association of Canada (SAC)

The Surety Association of Canada (SAC) was formed in June 1992 to act as “The Voice of Surety in Canada”. Its membership consists of major bonding companies along with members of the insurance brokerage community, legal fraternity and other industry related entities. The combined business of member surety companies comprises approximately 94% of all the surety premiums written in Canada.

SAC welcomes all participants in the surety industry to become members and participate in their efforts to make the surety bonds the first choice for contract security in the Canadian construction and business communities.
